

Students for the Cure® Essay Contest

What is the Race for the Cure® Essay Contest?

The Race for the Cure® Essay Contest provides a platform for students to share their understanding of the struggles for families as they deal with breast cancer, educational information on healthy lifestyle choices to help combat this dreaded disease and /or how the community can support efforts to find a cure for breast cancer.

- Students in grades K-8 are eligible.
- Essays may be word-processed or handwritten. They may be of any length.
- Essays will be judged on content, writing style, insight and importance of the story.

First, second and third place will be awarded.

The winners' essays will be on display at the Kids for the Cure® area on race day,

March 25, 2012.

Judges for this contest are impartial volunteers associated with the Race for the Cure®

All entries must be at the Komen office by the end of the day on February 17, 2012.
